THE CAMPUS AT
THE ART OF LIVING RETREAT CENTER

The Main Hall: Inner and Outer Harmony
Ideal for large groups and events, the main hall features stunning natural lighting and a spacious, wide-open area that incorporates principles of ancient Vedic architecture. The entrance opens on to majestic Blue Ridge Mountain views, grassy lawns, and many more meeting rooms. Capacity: 3,200

Veda Halls: Hilltop Retreats
Each of these four halls features spacious, open floor plans, plenty of natural light, and freely flowing air through the tall windows surrounding each hall. Capacity: 2153

Hillside Hall: Immerse Yourself in Nature
Secluded on a hillside even farther from the hustle and bustle of modern life than the rest of the center, the Hillside Hall is an ideal place for a quiet retreat or close gathering. Capacity: 300

The Labyrinth
Built outdoors among the trees and mountains, the labyrinth offers an opportunity to turn inward amidst the wonders of nature. The large space is ideal for both group and personal exploration.

Nature Walk
Trails meander through the woods to give visitors the experience of natural silence and fresh air.

Garden
As much a place for nourishment of the body as it is a place of nourishment for the soul, our garden grows a variety of fresh and delicious vegetables and flowers.

Dining Hall
Enjoy magnificent views of the eastern mountains as you lounge, sip hot tea or enjoy a freshly meal with company or in silence.

Children’s Playground
Children of all ages can enjoy the swing set and other features designed to make the center fun and safe for children as well as their parents.

Pottery Studio
The space encourages creativity and discovery and gives you a guided, hands-on opportunity to spin, mold, and work with clay.

Spa
Nestled on the campus, the Spa provides serenity, deep healing, Ayurvedic insights, and real nourishment for mind and body.
