

THE CAMPUS AT THE ART OF LIVING RETREAT CENTER

The Main Hall: Inner and Outer Harmony

Ideal for large groups and events, the main hall features stunning natural lighting and a spacious, wide-open area that incorporates principles of ancient Vedic architecture. The entrance opens on to majestic Blue Ridge Mountain views, grassy lawns, and many more meeting rooms. Capacity: 3,200

Nature Walk

Trails meander through the woods to give visitors the experience of natural silence and fresh air.

Veda Halls: Hilltop Retreats

Each of these four halls features spacious, open floor plans, plenty of natural light, and freely flowing air through the tall windows surrounding each hall. Capacity: 2153

Garden

As much a place for nourishment of the body as it is a place of nourishment for the soul, our garden grows a variety of fresh and delicious vegetables and flowers.

Shakti Hall: Immerse Yourself in Nature Secluded on a hillside even farther from the hustle and bustle of modern life than the rest of the center, Shakti Hall is an ideal place for a quiet retreat or close gathering. Capacity: 300

Dining Hall

Enjoy magnificent views of the eastern mountains as you lounge, sip hot tea or enjoy a freshly meal with company or in silence.

The Labyrinth

Built outdoors among the trees and mountains, the labyrinth offers an opportunity to turn inward amidst the wonders of nature. The large space is ideal for both group and personal exploration.

Children's Playground

Children of all ages can enjoy the swing set and other features designed to make the center fun and safe for children as well as their parents.

Pottery Studio

The space encourages creativity and discovery and gives you a guided, hands-on opportunity to spin, mold, and work with clay.

Shankara Ayurveda Wellness

Nestled on the campus, the Shankara Ayurveda Wellness provides serenity, deep healing, Ayurvedic insights, and real nourishment for mind and body.
